2010 Baseball Procedures

3. Team Selection.

- 3.1 Tournament. The results of double round-robin schedule during the regular season shall determine the six teams which advance to the Conference tournament. The six teams with the best winning percentage shall qualify for the tournament.

Note: All eight teams shall participate in the MVC baseball tournament in 2010 and 2011.

- 3.1.1 Host. In the event the host team is not among the top six teams, the top five teams plus the host will advance to the tournament.

- 3.2 NCAA Qualifier. The winner of the post-season tournament shall be the Conference champion and the automatic qualifier to the NCAA baseball tournament.

4. Conduct of Championship.

4.1 Regular-Season Competition

- 4.1.1 Regular-Season Scheduling. The Conference Office shall prepare the Conference regular-season baseball schedule. Each team shall play a 21-game Conference schedule. There will be no bye weekend during the season. A full Conference series shall consist of three nine-inning games played over three days. The league schedule shall take priority over non-conference games.

- 4.1.2 Days of Competition. Weekend Conference series shall be played on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, except the final series of the season which may be played on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. See 4.1.3.

- 4.1.3 Final Series Schedule. The final series of conference games shall be scheduled on Thursday, Friday and Saturday except by coaches' mutual consent to play the series on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. No rain make-up games may be played on Sunday. Institutions with final exams at that time will be scheduled at home to avoid conflicts with final exams. [See 4.1.5 e. (2) for exception.]

- 4.1.4 Regular-Season Champion. The regular-season Conference champion shall be the team with the best winning percentage of Conference games played. To qualify for the championship, a team must play a minimum of 16 Conference games and at least two-thirds of the teams in the Conference must have played the minimum number of Conference games. If at least two-thirds of the Conference teams have not met the minimum of 16 Conference games played, then the Conference regular season champion and the order of finish in regular-season Conference play shall be determined by the best winning percentage of games played by the teams in the Conference.

- 4.1.4 Rules. NCAA rules shall be followed except where local ground rules require modification.
- a. Ground Rules. The local ground rules shall be given to the visiting coach and to the umpires before the game starts.
  - b. Length of Games. All Conference games shall be nine innings.
  - c. 10-run Rule. The game shall be called if a team is behind by 10 runs or more and has finished its turn at bat in the seventh inning. The 10-run rule shall apply for nine-inning games only.
  - d. Jurisdiction of Play. The coaches of the competing institutions shall determine when a game shall start if playing conditions are affected by inclement weather. If the two coaches cannot come to an agreement as to when a game shall start due to weather and field conditions, the umpiring crew chief shall make the final decision. Once a game has commenced, it shall be under the absolute jurisdiction of the umpires and coaches of the competing institutions shall not interfere with the umpires' decision, per NCAA Rules.
  - e. Brush-Back Pitches. A pitcher, who in the judgment of the home plate umpire throws a "brush-back" pitch with the intention of sending a warning to an on-deck hitter who is too close to the plate area or is timing pitches, shall be ejected from the game and suspended for the remainder of the season, including all post-season play. In addition, the head coach shall be ejected and suspended for the team's next five contests.
  - f. Penalties for Unsportslike Conduct.
    - i. Any coach who is ejected from a game for demonstrating inappropriate behavior that includes excessive profanity, prolonged or heated discussions with umpires or demonstrative actions that incite players or spectators shall receive a minimum one-game suspension or more, depending on the severity of the violation as determined by the league office.

- ii. An assistant coach or non-participating player ejected from the game for leaving the dugout, bullpen area or their position on the field as a base coach to appeal any play or decision by an umpire shall serve a one-game suspension the next game and the head coach shall also serve a one-game suspension the second game following the ejection.
- iii. For the second offense by an individual in the same season, the penalty shall be ejection plus suspension from the team's next two contests.
- iv. For a third offense by an individual in the same season, the penalty shall be ejection and suspension for the remainder of the season, including post-season competition.
- v. Suspension penalties shall be served for the team's next regularly-scheduled and completed contest. Make-up games shall count as a regularly-scheduled contest, but games may not be added after the incident in order to fulfill the game-suspension requirement.

4.1.5 Game Agreements.

- a. Squad Limit. There are no travel squad limits; however teams are limited to 25 participants. The home team must use the same 25-man roster for all games in a series. The 25-man rosters shall be exchanged at home plate prior to the opening game of the series.

Only players, members of the coaching staff and team personnel (trainers, managers, etc.) shall be allowed in the dugout for a conference series.

- b. Practice. For Conference games, each institution shall have 40 minutes of batting practice and 8 minutes of infield practice prior to the start of play each day. The home team shall hit first in batting practice and take infield practice first.

2010 Baseball Procedures

The following pre-game schedule shall be followed for all conference games.

Home batting practice	2:00
Visitor batting practice	1:20
Remove cage	:40
Home infield	:34
Visitor infield	:26
Field preparation	:18
Introductions	:15
National Anthem followed by team handshake and sportsmanship announcement	:08
Umpires/coaches meeting	:05
Home team on field	:02
First pitch	:00

- c. Time of Games. Starting times for all Conference games shall be determined by the host institution in consultation with the visiting team.
- (1) Any double-headers shall begin at 12:00 noon local time or at a time mutually agreed upon by the coaches. There shall be a minimum of 20 minutes between games in a double-header. Day-night double-headers may be played upon mutual consent of both coaches.
  - (2) Games on get-away day, Easter Sunday and the final day of the season shall start no later than 2 p.m.
  - (3) Games on get-away Sunday that are delayed for inclement weather or other extenuating circumstances shall start no later than 6 p.m. Waivers of this rule may be submitted to the conference office.
  - (4) A midnight curfew is in effect for all other conference games, specifically, no inning may be started after midnight.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- (5) Suspended games from Saturday may be continued on Sunday morning with the starting time mutually agreed upon by the coaches.
- d. Rain-outs, Halted and Suspended Games. All schools are required to play three nine-inning games over three days on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, except as noted below. All games must be completed to nine innings except when the 10-run rule is in effect.
- (1) The final conference series of the season shall be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday, except by mutual consent of the two coaches, when the final conference series of the season may be played Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
  - (2) No make-up games are permitted on Monday for any conference series and no make-up games are permitted on Sunday for the final regular season series, except in situations where teams need to play the minimum number of games (16) required to qualify for the tournament. Teams shall then be permitted to play make-up games on Sunday according to the league rain-out policy.
  - (3) It is permissible for a game that could be played to be postponed to the next day in anticipation of having more favorable playing conditions, provided the coaches mutually agree to the move and are confident the conditions will improve the next day.
  - (4) It is permissible for a game regularly-scheduled on Sunday to be moved to Saturday as part of a doubleheader in anticipation of having more favorable playing conditions, provided the coaches mutually agree upon the change.
  - (5) If weather conditions cause concern in advance of a series that a game may need to be rescheduled, the home team must report such conditions to the visiting coach before the team leaves home. The conference office and coordinator of umpires should also be notified.
  - (6) Once the visiting team arrives on site, the home

2010 Baseball Procedures

institution's game administrator should:

- (a) Consult with both coaches and the umpire crew chief prior to canceling or rescheduling games
  - (b) Consult or notify the conference office and the visiting team administrator about decisions to cancel or reschedule games
- (7) Each institution should report to the conference office the name of its on-site administrator responsible for making decisions to cancel or reschedule games
- (8) No more than two games may be played in one day except in the event when a halted game is completed on Sunday followed by a seven-inning game and a nine-inning game. Coaches may not purposefully throw one pitch to start a game threatened by existing weather.
- (9) Games that have been suspended for any reason shall be resumed from the point of interruption. All Conference games shall be completed, weather permitting.
- (10) There shall be no make-up games for rain-outs, other than games on Friday and Saturday whose start is postponed due to inclement weather. Those games shall be rescheduled for either Saturday or Sunday and the regularly-scheduled game for that day shall follow. All games shall be played in the order they were originally scheduled, except as noted below when the original sequence of games in a series is altered due to inclement weather. Games rained out on Sunday shall not be rescheduled.
- (11) A team needing to meet the minimum number of games required to qualify for the tournament may play a rained-out game on the Sunday of the final weekend of league play.
- (12) Every attempt shall be made to play a conference series at the scheduled site. If the series cannot be played due to weather conditions or other factors at the scheduled site, the series shall be cancelled.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- (13) Rules for 9-inning games shall be applied to any 7-inning game played.
  - (14) A game halted by rain shall not be resumed any sooner than a minimum of 60 minutes after the visiting team's head coach has been informed by the home team that the game is to be resumed, unless both head coaches agree to start the game sooner.
  - (15) See Appendix 1 for outline of rain-out and rescheduling policies regarding specific situations.
- e. Tarps. In order to avoid cancellation of a game due to wet grounds, each university shall provide a reliable rain cover for its entire infield. This cover shall be placed on the field the day before a scheduled Conference game or games, unless the condition of the field does not warrant this action. (September, 1989)
  - f. Field Lights. A coach's request to turn on field lights must be made through the umpire-in-chief. Lights shall be turned on only upon completion of a full inning unless the umpire-in-chief feels that conditions warrant immediate use. To avoid delay, the host institution must provide someone at all late afternoon and night games to turn on the lights.
  - g. Baseballs. The Rawlings NCAA tournament baseball is designated as “the official baseball of the Conference” and must be used during the regular season and tournament. The host institution shall provide the game balls.
  - h. Equipment. Teams shall provide all equipment needed except game baseballs.
  - i. Dressing Facilities. The host institution shall provide a schedule for use and assignment of locker room space, if available, for the opposing team.
  - j. Crowd Control. The responsibility for crowd control rests with the Director of Athletics or the designated representative of the host institution. The Directors of Athletics of the competing institutions are expected to communicate with their students and other interested fans prior to the competition to encourage enthusiastic support within the confines of good sportsmanship. The Directors of Athletics or the designated representative of the host institution (other than coaches) shall be available at the site of the competition to assist in controlling the crowd.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- (1) Public Address. The Director of Athletics or the designated representative of the host institution should be prepared to go to the public address system at the first sign of unsportsmanlike crowd behavior and request cooperation in maintaining proper playing conditions.
- (2) Access. Only the participants, coaches, officials, and authorized personnel shall be allowed in the competition area before, during and at the conclusion of competition.
- (3) Noisemakers. Air horns, whistles and electronic amplifiers are not permissible. The Directors of Athletics or the designated representative of the host institution is responsible for removing these items from the competition area. Artificial noisemakers, such as promotional balloons and “spirit sticks”, are permissible provided their use does not negatively impact play.

k. Complimentary Tickets. The visiting team shall provide the host institution with a pass list for complimentary admission to Conference games, with the limit to be determined by the home team.

4.2 Tournament.

4.2.1 Team Selection. All eight teams shall participate in the MVC baseball tournament in 2010 and 2011.

(1)

4.2.2 Format. The tournament shall be an eight-team tournament consisting of two four-team double elimination brackets and the winner of each bracket advancing to a single championship game.

4.2.3 Seeding. Teams shall be seeded one through eight according to their respective won-lost records and winning percentages in regular-season conference games. The team with the best won-lost percentage shall be seeded No. 1. Seed No. 2 shall be the team with the second-best percentage and so forth.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- a. Tied Games. Tied regular-season games shall be counted in the Conference standings as a half-game lost and a half-game won.
- b. Announcement. Tournament seedings and pairings shall be announced after the last regular-season Conference game is played.

4.2.4 Ties.

- a. Two-way Tie. In the case of a two-way tie, head-to-head competition shall be used to break the tie. The higher seed shall go to the team that has won the most Conference games played against the other team involved in the tie. If the teams have split their season series, a comparison of records between the tying institutions versus the No. 1 seed shall be used to break the tie, with the team having the better record against the No. 1 seed receiving the higher seed. This process will continue through the No. 6 seed if necessary.

The final alternative will be a coin toss.

- b. Multiple Ties. In the case of multiple ties, composite records among teams shall be used to determine if one team won more games against the other tied teams. If this process does not resolve the multiple ties or reduce the multiple ties to two teams having identical records, then a comparison of records versus the No. 1 seed shall occur. This process shall continue through the No. 6 seed if necessary. All ties will be broken starting at the top of the standings and working down.

The final alternative shall be a coin toss.

4.2.5 Tournament Agreements. All regular-season rules and game agreements shall apply except as modified below.

- a. Squad Size.
  - (1) Each team shall be limited to twenty-five (25) eligible players in uniform to be designated prior to the tournament.

2010 Baseball Procedures

After the tournament has begun, no changes may be made in a team roster for any reason.

- (2) On the field, including the practice field, bullpen, bench and dugout, each team is limited to official coaches in uniform, twenty-five (25) eligible players in uniform, one trainer, one equipment manager and two bat persons, all of whom must be in appropriate uniform.

b. Practice.

- (1) Batting practice should be arranged on a field other than the tournament field in the event that more than one game is to be played on a given day. Competing teams shall each have forty (40) minutes of batting practice, with the home team batting first.
- (2) All teams should be accorded practice facilities of equal quality beginning the day before the tournament and during the tournament.
- (3) The host school should provide a practice coordinator for these purposes. Practices are one hour in length on a first-come, first-served basis.
- (4) Between games of double-headers each team shall be permitted seven minutes for infield practices. The home team will take infield first.

c. Rain Conditions. The tournament director shall control the start of games under rain conditions.

- (1) If rain occurs in any portion of any day, but not sufficient to cancel the entire day's schedule, the bracket shall be revised to accommodate full double-elimination competition.
- (2) If rain cancels the first day of competition, the tournament shall be moved back one day and shall be played on a double-elimination basis as scheduled.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- (3) If rain should cancel any day following the first scheduled day of competition, the tournament shall be moved back one day and played on a double-elimination basis.
  - (4) If rain cancels two consecutive days of competition, a single-elimination tournament shall be played.
  - (5) If rain delays the championship game, the game shall be postponed until such time that weather conditions permit the game to be played.
- d. Postponed Game.
- (1) A game postponed due to weather or other causes shall be rescheduled. If play is stopped prior to being a regulation game 4-½ innings), the game shall be resumed from the point of suspension. If there has been a minimum of seven full innings of play and one team is ahead by 10 or more runs and the game cannot be finished (i.e., inclement weather, etc.), it shall be ruled a complete game.
  - (2) If for unforeseen circumstances, it becomes impossible to play a tournament game(s), the Conference Office is authorized to determine which team(s) shall advance in the championship and that team shall be the regular-season champion.
  - (3) All tournament games are to be completed. The 10-run rule shall not be in effect for the tournament.
- e. 10-run Rule. The 10 run rule shall be used for tournament games, except the championship game
- f. Game Ball. The Rawlings ball shall be “the official ball of the Conference tournament.” Rawlings shall provide 24 dozen balls for the tournament at no cost to the Conference. The Conference Office shall be responsible for receiving the balls from Rawlings.
- g. Home Team Determination. Determination of the home team shall be by the NCAA tournament system. The home teams for first-round games are determined through seeding, with the highest-seeded team in each first round game serving as the home team. In subsequent games, the home team shall be the institution that has had the opportunity to be the home team the fewest number of times in the tournament.

- h. National Anthem. The National Anthem shall be played before each session and prior to the championship game. The host institution is responsible for providing a tape recording or record.
- i. Tickets.
  - (1) Ticket prices for the tournament are to be determined by the host institution and the Conference Office.
  - (2) Players shall be admitted to games in which they are not participating via a pass list.
- j. Mascots. Team mascots are not to be allowed on the playing field at any time.

4.2.6 Protest Procedures. The following protest procedures shall be followed in the tournament:

- a. Any protest by the coach of a competing team must be made at the time of the action or incident which caused the protest and before play is resumed.
- b. If the game ends (legal contest) in a situation or protest, the offended team must start protest procedures immediately (within 20 seconds).
- c. All protests must be made to the umpire-in-chief.
- d. No protest shall be allowed that involves a judgement decision by an umpire.
- e. All protests must be ruled upon immediately by the tournament director.

4.2.7 Host Responsibilities.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- a. Lodging. The host institution for the Conference tournament is to provide the Conference Office and member institutions with a list of recommended area hotels and rates.

Institutions are to make their own hotel reservations for the tournament. The Conference Office shall select one of the recommended hotels to serve as the tournament headquarters.

- b. Medical. A physician or qualified athletic trainer must be in attendance at all games. Arrangements should be made by the tournament director to have access to a medical facility.
- c. The host institution shall make every effort to provide the following:
  - (1) Ground crews
  - (2) Water and towels for both dugouts
  - (3) Adequate security

  - (8) high school
  - (9) special awards or recognition
- d. Season's record and standing in Conference
- e. Individual statistics and team statistics

5. Tournament Administration.

- 5.1 Games Committee. The games committee shall consist of the six head baseball coaches of the competing institutions and the Commissioner or an appointed representative. A majority vote is required for all action. The Commissioner or appointed representative may vote only in the event of a tie. The host institution's Director of Athletics may also serve on the tournament committee.
- 5.2 Tournament Director. The Commissioner or designated representative shall serve as tournament director.

6. Umpires.

- 6.1 Regular Season. The Conference shall assign three umpires to all baseball games, conference and non-conference, with the latter assigned umpires within geographic proximity.
- 6.2 Pool. The Conference Office shall select, assign, and contract umpires from a pool of umpires provided by league coaches and selected umpire associations as determined by the Conference Office.
  - 6.2.1 Employees of member institutions shall not be assigned to officiate any conference or non-conference game.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- 6.3 Payment. The host institution shall be responsible for payment of umpires at the site on game day when possible or by mail payment within 5 business days.
  - 6.3.1 Conference members shall share equally in all officiating costs for Conference games through an adjustment to the Conference's annual distribution.
  - 6.3.2 Umpires are guaranteed payment for an entire series regardless of the number of games played due to inclement weather. If games are canceled prior to the umpires' departure from home for a series, umpires shall not be paid for those games canceled.
- 6.4 Fees.
  - 6.4.1 Game fee. $170 per game with the crew chief receiving an additional $50 per series.
  - 6.4.2 Travel. $1.00 per mile (one-way) for each umpire.
  - 6.4.3 Meal Allowance. $35 for one-day, $45 for a two-day series; $70 for a three-day series.
  - 6.4.4 Lodging. Two rooms for each three-man umpiring crew shall be provided by the host institution.
  - 6.4.5 Facilities. Locker room facilities shall be made available on campus, upon request, at institutions without on-site facilities for umpires. A game administrator shall meet umpires on site for league games to accompany umpires to their dressing room.
  - 6.4.6 Payment. Checks for game fees, travel and meal allowance shall be given to each umpire prior to the start of the series.
  - 6.4.7 Tickets. Two complimentary admissions shall be provided to each official for all conference contests, when requested at least one week in advance.
- 6.5 Tournament Umpires.
  - 6.5.1 Assignment. The Conference Office shall assign six umpires for the Conference championship tournament.

2010 Baseball Procedures

- 6.5.2 Crews. Four umpires shall work each tournament game.
- 6.5.3 Fees. Tournament fee tbd, reasonable hotel expenses, per diem and either standard airfare or automobile mileage ($1.00 per mile; one way).
- 6.5.4 Restrictions. Under no circumstances shall a player, coach or representative of any institution be allowed in the umpires' room.

7. Awards.

7.1 Team Trophies. Team trophies shall be awarded as follows:

- 7.1.1 Regular-season champion
- 7.1.2 First-place tournament team
- 7.1.3 Second-place tournament team

7.2 First-place Team Individual Awards. Watches shall be awarded to members of the first-place team, regular season and tournament. [Duplicate watches shall not be provided if the same team wins both titles.]

7.3 All-Conference Awards. Coaches shall annually select 15 players each to first and second all-conference teams, a player of the year, pitcher of the year, newcomer of the year (four-year transfer or junior college transfer nominations only) and freshman of the year (true freshmen nominations only) . Coaches shall nominate players and select players on a ballot to be submitted to the Conference Office. Coaches shall not vote for players from their own team. Student-athletes who receive at least two votes in a particular category receive honorable mention all-conference recognition.

7.4 All-Tournament. A 12-member all-tournament team, including a Most Outstanding Player, shall be selected by the media.

7.5 Coach of the Year. Head coaches, baseball sports information directors and one member of the media (print or broadcast) per team shall annually select a coach of the year.
