

Game Two Quotes

Missouri State

Head Coach Katie Abrahamson-Henderson

“Our fans are magic. When they get going it gets tough for our opponents. It’s amazing how much noise and pressure they can create.”

“When we get going, it’s hard to stop us.”

“We started playing defense. I said in the time out, ‘You gotta stay in stance, guard, and commit to that. We’re going to have to get rebounds.’”

“We like to push it and go. That’s fun basketball to me.”

Kari Koch, 5-8, Sr. Guard

“You can’t think it’s the end, you have to keep playing.”

“Once we started playing defense, we started flowing on offense.”

“To get to play another game in front of our fans is unbelievable.”

Tahnee Balerio, 5-6, So., Guard

“I’m just trying to do what helps the team.”

Bradley

Head Coach Paula Buscher

“We are very disappointed. I thought we played extremely hard though.”

“I’m real pleased with our effort and I have to give a lot of credit to Missouri State.”

“Koch is a great player and she was not going to end her career tonight. She went after it.”

“They started hitting shots, and we tightened up.”

“Missouri State really made a big push in the second half and I feel my team went after it and played aggressively. We gave everything and just came up short.”

Amy Peters, 6-2, Jr., Center

“When we had the lead, we were comfortable. The crowd got the Bears back in the game and we didn’t respond.”
